Lauder hopes to have his class going at College just yet, although Billy Lauder hopes to have his class going at College next year. But even Billy would be dazd by some of the abstruse questions that are fired over the plate by rooters in and near Greater New York.

The writer has two Pinkerton detectives looking up those he could not answer, and will report later on. The "Constant Reader" who asks whether Jack Powell was educated for church honors must apply to Jack in person. We are afraid to inquire. As to whether Chrystic Mathewson is a Swede by descent—that also must be passed up. It is not always wise to become personal in baseball affairs.

In answer to "Burkeville," relative to Barney Dreyfuss's first name we may say it is a contraction for Belshuzzar.

Cyclists. public to know. The question of salaries nakes more trouble on a team than shything else. For example, McGinnity was within an gee of leaving McGraw last year because Brush was giving Mathewson more money. This year "Kid" Elliarfeld stafted off with less than Parent, of Boston. He kicked for the same and got it. He's worth a lot more than Parent, and another season Frank Farrell will raise senson Frank Farrell will raise him very likely, in regard to Keeler we have heard that he gets $6,500. That is not official, mind yon, but we think it is nearly right. Is he worth it? Well,
